NMYSA Hotel Rebate Program Albuquerque Tournaments 2024-2025

The New Mexico Youth Soccer Association and the Albuquerque Convention and Visitors Bureau, now Visit Albuquerque Sports Commission, have joined forces to standardize a hotel room night rebate program for all Albuquerque tournaments for the seasonal year 2024-2025. This opportunity is between the tournament, NMYSA and the Visit Alb. and does not impact any hotel relationships that tournaments may negotiate in addition to this agreement.

The benefits of the program:

- 1) Albuquerque tournament hosts receive $1.50 per room night for all out-of-metro teams except Santa Fe teams.
- 2) The program pays that rebate based on a calculated formula, rather than hotel reporting – so the fact that out-of-metro teams participate in Albuquerque tournaments earns the rebate, rather than an actual verification of room nights purchased.
- 3) This rebate is paid solely from the Visit Alb. Sports Commission and does not impact any other relationships that tournaments may have in place or want to put in place. Tournaments can negotiate individual rebates, host hotel agreements, free meeting rooms or any other arrangement that is important to the tournament, regardless of, and exclusive of the NMYSA/Visit Alb. program.
- 4) NMYSA has compiled the attached list for potential contacts for housing proposals. The tournament is free to have any Visit Alb. member contacted through Visit Alb. for housing proposals. It is OK to ask the hotels on this list to include special terms in their proposals, like room night rebates (separate from the Visit Alb. rebate) and breakfast.

The responsibilities of the tournament:

- 1) The tournament must choose at least one Visit Alb. member to receive a request for proposal from Visit Alb. The tournament may choose as many hotels as they wish. A list of member hotels is attached.
- 2) The tournament must fill out the out-of-metro team chart and provide a list of out-of-metro teams as part of their final tournament report to NMYSA. The Visit Alb. Rebate is paid on those room nights booked at Albuquerque hotels.

The responsibilities of NMYSA:

- 1) NMYSA signs the letter of intent with the Visit Alb., committing the tournament to send at least one request for proposal to a Visit Alb. member through the Visit Alb. lead system.
- 2) NMYSA coordinates all paperwork with the Visit Alb.
- 3) NMYSA receives the team chart from the hosts and disperses funds to the host tournament.
